

El Paso Herald-Post

The Newspaper That Serves Its Readers

HOME EDITION

PRICE FIVE CENTS

VOL. LXXVII NO. 257

EL PASO, TEXAS, MONDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1957

DELIVERED BY CARRIER 30c PER WEEK

Find Patterson's Clothes Here

PATTERSON'S SUIT — Mrs. Carmen Hernandez holds suit owned by W. D. Patterson. The suit was left at a cleaning shop shortly before Mr. and Mrs. Patterson dropped from sight last spring.

Before Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Patterson vanished from their home at 3000 Piedmont avenue last March, they left expensive clothing at cleaners and laundries that never has been picked up.

They left their electric and gas service connected and both the electricity and gas remained as they left it until the service was changed to the name of the present occupant of the house on July 15.

Every item of personal property and every household feature was left by the Pattersons just as if they expected to return in minutes or hours.

Foul Play Strengthened
All this points up even more the theory that the missing couple met with foul play.

Mr. Patterson left expensive clothing for one-day service or other indication he expected to go away. The clothing is still in the cleaning plant.

Friends who attempted to telephone the Pattersons at their home during the first few days after the couple disappeared said they heard the usual sound of a telephone ringing. But some six weeks after the Pattersons disappeared, the callers heard the customary recording that the telephone was disconnected.

Leased in July
Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co. officials said they are not at liberty to disclose just when the Patterson telephone was disconnected, or by whose authority.

Southern Union Gas Co. and El Paso Electric Co. are not so secretive about when utilities are turned on or off. Employees of each of these companies checked the records today and said electricity and gas remained connected in the Patterson name until the house was leased in July to its present occupants.

Mr. Patterson's father, Luther M. Patterson, 77, a resident of Missouri, told The Herald-Post in August he is not anxious about the disappearance of his son—because the son previously went away for long periods without giving notice. Those periods were long ago, before the son became established as a widely known El Paso business man.

Important Evidence
Investigators consider the most conclusive evidence that Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Patterson are the possible victims of violence these two facts:

The Patterson cat, Tommy, for

It's surprising how many people think that just being married is grounds for divorce.

years cared for like a child, was left to forage for itself or starve. The new boat that was being built by Mr. Patterson, known as the pride and joy of its builder, was left unfinished, and after the Pattersons disappeared was moved to a place where it is exposed and is showing decay.

All friends of the Pattersons who know how Mrs. Patterson treated and pampered Tommy, and who know Mr. Patterson's regard for the boat, are certain that if the Pattersons should return they will call for an accounting of why Tommy and the boat were treated with such disregard by whoever was supposed to care for them.

Sudden Departure
All of these circumstances, the wearing apparel left in cleaning and laundry plants, the utilities left connected, plus the previously disclosed fact the mail was not changed from the Patterson home to the Patterson Photo Supply office until April 27, indicate the Pattersons left hurriedly and left everything just as if they were going downtown.

Where the Pattersons went and what became of them is a matter of official investigation — without a trace of evidence so far to indicate either the direction they went or their present whereabouts.

A telegram presumed to be from Mr. Patterson was sent to one of his business associates from a telephone pay station in Dallas on or about March 15, giving instructions as to business management of the photo supply store, and some other matters.

Cabinet Sworn In
By International News Service
BONN, Oct. 28. — West German President Theodor Heuss today handed the scrolls of office to members of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's new cabinet which will be sworn in before parliament tomorrow.

112 Deaths Predicted
By United Press
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28. — The American Automobile Assn. predicted today that 28 hunters will be killed and 112 injured in gun accidents in cars unless they are more careful with firearms.

Puzzle Grows Over Ouster Of Zhukov

Feeling Spreads That General's Removal Was Step Downward

By Associated Press
MOSCOW, Oct. 28. — The belief is growing among Westerners in Moscow that Marshal George K. Zhukov's removal as defense minister means he has been downgraded and that Nikita Khrushchev sits firmly in the Kremlin saddle.

Soviet officialdom is still veiled in silence. Nothing specific has been added to the terse, nine-line announcement Saturday that Zhukov has been replaced by Marshal Radion Y. Malinovsky.

Most Western diplomats in Moscow believe that regardless of whether Zhukov receives a new government post, Khrushchev's authority in the Kremlin is at least as strong as ever.

Only One Effect
They also believe that there will be no adverse reaction in the country, no matter where Zhukov turns up next.

One veteran western diplomat said: "The omission from the official announcement of any indication that the change was made to permit Zhukov's assignment to other duties—such as premier or deputy premier—could have only one possible effect on the Soviet public. They would read into the announcement that Zhukov is out."

"Certainly if the Communist high command planned to kick Zhukov upstairs into a new job there would have been some hint of it in the announcement if for no other reason than for home consumption."

See More Changes
In the West a host of theories about Zhukov's fate kept even the best informed experts on Russia puzzled. Soviet censorship prevented ed Moscow correspondents from sending some interpretations of the Zhukov removal.

Zhukov

Diplomats in London suggested there soon might be more changes in the Kremlin.

They said Khrushchev seemed to have tightened his hold by removing his strongest potential rival for power.

Historian Tabs Ike As Uninformed

By United Press
CHICAGO, Oct. 28. — Poet-historian Carl Sandburg said last night "there are all sorts of things" about Americans that President Eisenhower doesn't know.

The 79-year-old Lincoln expert said Eisenhower had spent 15 years in the Philippines during his Army life and that he believed a military career was a "hindrance" to the presidency.

"Let the military men stay with the military," Sandburg said.

They constituted about 18 per cent of the total list of 76 names. The richest of all, the magazine said, is not a Texan, but he is nevertheless an oil man, a California expatriate, J. Paul Getty, now living in Paris. Getty's interests include Getty Oil and Tidewater Oil companies, with fabulous holdings in the Middle East. His wealth is estimated at from $700 million to $1 billion.

The richest Texan of all is H. L. Hunt, Dallas, independent oil operator, whose wealth is estimated at from $400 million to $700 million.

In the same category are six other persons, including two wom-

H. L. Hunt

Mystery Man Prowls In Another Home

Program Of Daniel Takes Whole Session

Chief Executive's 5 Proposals to Take All Time Allotted Solons

By ERNEST BAILEY
Herald-Post Austin Correspondent
AUSTIN, Oct. 28. — House Speaker Waggoner Carr today said he didn't know whether or not the Legislature can complete action on Governor Price Daniel's five-point program so that other matters can be presented for consideration next week.

In an exclusive interview with The Herald-Post Austin correspondent, Speaker Carr said: "There are still some things that are unpredictable as far as setting any time limit."

Not Going Too Fast
"We will do the best we can. There are a lot of questions that still have to be worked out."

"We are not going so fast on anything to be detrimental to any part of the state." Governor Daniel said Saturday officially that if the Legislature completes action on his program this week then two subjects pertaining to the school segregation issue could be considered starting next Monday.

Integration Measures
The Herald-Post had previously carried exclusive stories on this.

One subject would allow for the closure of any Texas school occupied by Federal troops. The other would direct the attorney general to defend school districts involved in integration lawsuits.

Governor Daniel will also consider at the end of this week whether to allow the Legislature to act on some 50 requests for local bills.

During a special session the governor decides what subjects are to be considered by the Legislature.

The deadline for the current session is Nov. 12.

Soviet, U S. Talks

By International News Service
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28. — The United States and Russia today began talks aimed at stepping up the cultural and technical exchange programs between the two countries.

Who Is The Kind Stranger?
Who is the kind, mysterious stranger who brings cheer to the ill with red rosebuds and messages of comfort?

Why does he do this?
For an unusual and heart-warming story, read today's Side-Bar Remarks on Page 22.

FRIGHTENED WOMAN — Mrs. Leon Seigel of 4228 Hampshire street holds purse rifled by prowler.

Intruder Frightens E. P. Woman

Believed To Be One Who Entered Hervey Home

The mysterious intruder who has entered at least six homes recently, prowled again early today.

He entered the Leon Seigel home at 4228 Hampshire street and was frightened away by their screams.

He took 34 cents from Mrs. Seigel's purse.

Mrs. Fred Hervey, wife of the former mayor, said she was unable to determine from the description if the intruder were the same man who broke into her home at 4025 North Kansas street and beat her several weeks ago.

"I didn't get a good enough look at the prowler," she said. "I couldn't tell the color of his hair or how it was cut."

The Seigel home is only a few blocks from the Hervey home.

The Seigels said the prowler was young — about 20 or 21, about six feet tall, blond hair cut short and was wearing a dark turtle neck sweater and dark trousers.

An El Paso housewife, who asked that her name not be used told The Herald-Post her maid surprised a man in her yard at night about a week ago whose description tallies almost exactly with the description given by the Seigels.

Mrs. Seigel said she and her husband were asleep when she awakened. "When I opened my eyes, I saw the man's back," she said.

"I was paralyzed with fear. I didn't say a word. I don't think I could have, I was so scared. The man walked through our bedroom door. He was as quiet

(Continued on Page 4, Col. 1)

Ties, Upsets Too Much For Gridiron Predictors

It was a bad day for favored teams and contestants in The Herald-Post's $500 Football Contest.

That's what it was Saturday. Another wave of gridiron upsets inundated the experts and sank the score predictors. There were no winners in the week's contest of The Herald-Post.

No less than six games besides a tie went contrary to the predictions of the odds-makers.

The tie was a 14-14 game played between Duke and North Carolina. It caused the most casualties among the thousands of contestants who sought a perfect score.

But there were other games (Continued on Page 4, Col. 1)

Freezing Weather Again Hits Texas

By UNITED PRESS
Sub-freezing weather again hit a number of Texas points last night but forecasters said a general warming trend was in prospect for the state.

Lufkin had the low early today of 29 degrees; it was 30 at Mineral Wells, 31 at Junction and 32 at Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, College Station and Texarkana.

Other overnight lows included 34 at Galveston, 35 at Salt Flat and Lubbock; 37 at Amarillo and Midland and 49 at Bronsville.

Otherwise, the list's studded with names of Mellon, Rockefeller, duPont, Duke, Astor, Ford, McCormick, Whitney, Dodge, Cabot and Pew.

It includes some names not very well known, such as: Daniel K. (Continued on Page 19, Col. 3)

Scores of Games In Grid Contest

Texas Western 42, New Mexico Aggies 12.

West Texas 39, Hardin-Simmons 19.

Texas 19, Rice 14.

Texas A. and M. 14, Baylor 0.

Arkansas 12, Mississippi 6.

Georgia 33, Kentucky 14.

Tennessee 16, Maryland 0.

Michigan State 19, Illinois 0.

Penn State 20, Syracuse 12.

Washington State 13, Southern California 12.

Ohio State 16, Wisconsin 13.

Duke 14, North Carolina State 14.

Notre Dame 13, Pittsburgh 7.

Oregon 24, California 6.

Michigan 24, Minnesota 7.

Sputnik Data Sent

By International News Service
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 28. — Dr. J. Allen Hynek, associate director of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory, has announced the transmission to Soviet Russia of all data on its Sputnik satellite gathered by Americans throughout the world.

Five-Day Weather

DISTRICT 13

Temperatures near normal. Normal minimum 40-50 north and 50-60 south. Normal maximum 67-80. Cool with slow rising trend through Wednesday and little change thereafter. Precipitation light in few showers or thundershowers about Wednesday and little or none remainder of period.

DISTRICT 12

Temperatures 2-3 degrees below normal. Little precipitation.

DISTRICT 28

Scattered showers mostly west portion beginning of period. Temperatures will average a few degrees above seasonal.

DISTRICT 31

Scattered showers at first and possibly again towards end of week. Temperatures about normal.

DISTRICT 32

Scattered showers near weekend. Temperatures above normal.

Inside Your Herald-Post

U. S. Weather Bureau Forecast: Increasing cloudiness today. (Details on Page 19.)

Amusements	25-27
Ann Carroll	25
Comics	35
Crossword Puzzle	35
Deaths	39
Dr. B. U. L. Connor	22
Editorials	22
Inez Robb	24
Othman	21
People	30
Radio and TV Programs	26-27
Southwest News	8
Sports	28-29
Town Talk	3
Women's News	16-17-18

14 Texans Make Top U. S. Millionaire List

By Scripps-Howard Newspapers
NEW YORK, Oct. 28. — Fourteen Texans today made Fortune Magazine's list of the nation's very big rich—the men and women with wealth estimated at $75 million or more.

They constituted about 18 per cent of the total list of 76 names. The richest of all, the magazine said, is not a Texan, but he is nevertheless an oil man, a California expatriate, J. Paul Getty, now living in Paris. Getty's interests include Getty Oil and Tidewater Oil companies, with fabulous holdings in the Middle East. His wealth is estimated at from $700 million to $1 billion.

The richest Texan of all is H. L. Hunt, Dallas, independent oil operator, whose wealth is estimated at from $400 million to $700 million.

In the same category are six other persons, including two women. They are: Mrs. Mellon Bruce (Ailsa Mellon), New York; Arthur Vining Davis, Miami, Aluminum Co. of America and Florida real estate; Paul Mellon, Virginia; Richard King Mellon, Pittsburgh; John D. Rockefeller Jr., New York; and Mrs. Alan M. Scaife (Sarah Mellon), Pittsburgh.

The magazine said that its survey of the nation's richest men showed that 45 per cent of them believe it is still possible for an enterprising American to start scratch and build a $50 million fortune.

The other Texans listed are: Howard Hughes, now of Los Angeles, Hughes Tool Co.; and Sid Richardson, independent oil operator, Fort Worth, $200 million to $400 million.

James Abercrombie, Houston, independent oil operator; William

Blakeley, Dallas, former Texas senator, Braniff Airways, real estate; John Mecom, Houston, independent oil operator; Clint Murchison, Dallas, independent oil operator; and R. E. Smith, Houston, independent oil operator, $100 million to $200 million.

George R. Brown and Herman Brown, Houston, Brown and Root, Inc.; Leo Corrigan, Dallas real estate; Robert Kleberg Jr., King Ranch, cattle, oil land; A. H. Meadows, Dallas, General American Oil; and George W. Strake, Houston, independent oil operator, $75 million to $100 million.

Otherwise, the list's studded with names of Mellon, Rockefeller, duPont, Duke, Astor, Ford, McCormick, Whitney, Dodge, Cabot and Pew.

It includes some names not very well known, such as: Daniel K. (Continued on Page 19, Col. 3)

Clint W. Murchison