

Patterson Friends To Take Stand

gent search has been made and the Pattersons cannot be found.
As attorney for the missing couple, Mr. Long has promised a continuing search. Relatives of Mrs. Patterson, so far unknown here, will be sought.
Herbert Roth, temporary receiver, and Art Moreno, long-time employee of the Patterson shop, will be available as witnesses if their testimony is needed, Attorney Elfers said.
A telegram sent from Dallas March 15 of last year and signed "Pat" was addressed to Mr. Roth. It is believed to be the last word received from Patterson by El Paso associates since he disappeared.

Will Issue Subpenas
Referring to Mr. Moreno, the telegram instructed Mr. Roth to tell Art to "take care of business like it was his as part will be some day."
Subpenas will be issued for any witnesses deemed necessary who do not appear voluntarily, Mr. Long and Mr. Elfers said.

Attorney Elfers said witnesses called may include Sheriff W. O. Hicks, who began an investigation at the request of friends of the Pattersons last August; John Friczell, former deputy sheriff who was assigned to the case; W. A. Cowan, Texas Department of Public Safety investigator, and Capt. Frank Manning, now heading the Sheriff's inquiry.

Sheds No Light
One of the key figures in the case, D. G. Kirkland of Lubbock, burne, Myra is married and lives in Brooklyn, N. Y., and Orland Jr. is at the Masonic Home in Fort Worth. Mr. White could not readily recall the married names of the daughters, but said he has this information and their addresses at his home.

Filed for Divorce
He said he last saw Mrs. Kirk two years ago when Charles graduated from high school at the Masonic Home. He spoke to her and her former wife simply spoke to each other and held no conversation.
He said he filed for the divorce in 1946, but allowed his wife to get the divorce. He said he has seen Mr. Kirk, his former wife's present husband, but is not acquainted with him.

"I know nothing about this man who left what is reported as a fortune to Agnes—nothing except what I have read in the newspapers the last few days," Mr. White said. "It looks like she is going to come into considerable money. I am said he has not been asked or subpoenaed to appear at the hearing. Mr. Kirkland was appointed "manager" of Patterson Photo Supplies in the telegram received from Dallas.

Mr. Kirkland told The Herald-Post today from Lubbock: "If I could shed any light on the Pattersons I would be the first to do so. I have no reason to believe they are not alive. I have no evidence of foul play. I have not heard from them, and I haven't the remotest idea where they are."

watching and waiting to see what happens."
Mrs. Kirk, a rest home operator, and her present husband have two children.
She said in Cleburne today that a telephone caller had threatened to kidnap one of her children.
Mrs. Kirk said it was one of "several crank calls" she had received and that she was a "little afraid." She said relatives had advised her to keep someone with her for protection.
She said one caller told her: "I need some money and you need your child," and hung up. Mrs. Kirk said she didn't report the call to police.

Mrs. Kirk disclosed that Sexton tried to rape her while he was in her rest home in May, 1954. He tried to ravish her the day after giving her a $100,000 check.
The niece got a court order invalidating the check and declared him incompetent and moved him off to the Cherokee Rest Home in Jacksonville, where he died March 1.

Mrs. Bessie Richardson, who runs a restaurant where Sexton ate for years, disclosed that while Sexton liked the money he got from oil, he hated oil in itself.
She said he came in one day in the midst of talk about drillers being on the verge of finding oil around Cleburne and she told him: "I hear they might strike oil. Isn't that fine?"
"There is nothing fine about it," he told her.

Space Approved

A request for additional space at the Municipal Airport by the General Services Division was approved by the City Council today.

Thrill Killer Begs For Fair Chance with a smile.

"There was a slight quiver in his voice as he read a prepared statement pleading for complete privacy. He said his parole agreement specified no interviews, no pictures, no television appearances and a withdrawal from publicity of any kind.
Gertz explained that an exception was made today for his departure to permit Leopold to voice his plea.
"I appeal as solemnly as I know how to you and to your editors and to your publishers and to the society at large to agree that the only piece of news about me is that I have ceased to be news," Leopold said.

"I beg, I beseech you and your editors and your publishers to grant me a gift almost as precious as freedom itself—a gift without which freedom ceases to have much value—the gift of privacy," he said.
"Give me a chance—a fair chance—to start life anew," he said.

Council Approves Salary Raises

City Council today approved the first granting of an ordinance which will read pay raises to approximately 600 City employees.
Personnel affected include all uniformed personnel of the Fire and Police Departments, plus employees in the Tax, Personnel, Sanitation, Engineering, License, Legal, and other departments. The increases range from a 6 per cent raise for sanitation workers to an 11 per cent raise for policemen and firemen.
The raises will go into effect April 1.
The raises were all provided for in the budget approved for the year beginning March 1.
